

MEDIA RELEASE

11th January 2012

Saltwater Coast partners with Point Cook Cricket Club

Saltwater Coast, Point Cook's newest coastal community is proud to announce a sponsorship of the Point Cook Cricket Club.

Evian Delfabbro, FKP Executive General Manager Residential Communities, said that Saltwater Coast is delighted to sponsor the Point Cook Cricket Club.

"Community and recreation is at the heart of Saltwater Coast. With almost 35 per cent of Point Cook's population aged under 19, the Point Cook Cricket Club provides an excellent opportunity for young people to take part in sport from a young age."

President of the Point Cook Cricket Club, Joe Polzella said that the new relationship with Saltwater Coast was exciting.

"We are very pleased to have Saltwater Coast supporting the Point Cook Cricket Club in 2012. We are looking forward to the season of cricket ahead which will see the club go from strength to strength with this new sponsorship."

2012 will also see the launch of Saltwater Reserve, one of the largest sporting facilities in Wyndham City, right on the doorstep of Saltwater Coast.

Once completed Saltwater Reserve will become the new home for the Point Cook Cricket Club and will feature three AFL and cricket ovals, eight tennis courts and three soccer fields.

Surrounded by the Point Cook Coastal Park, Port Phillip Bay and Cheetham Wetlands, community recreation is a key feature of Saltwater Coast's masterplan.

Saltwater Coast will boast extensive open spaces including wetlands and landscaped parks which will include boardwalks, walking tracks, bike paths, BBQ facilities and shelters, picnic tables, playgrounds and fitness stations.

Saltwater Coast will comprise of around 2,500 homes and will feature approximately 50 hectares of open space, wetlands and parklands to complement its natural setting.

The Lifestyle Centre, which will open its doors early this year, will feature a broad range of the latest sporting and recreation facilities including a fully equipped gym, two tennis courts, an indoor heated 25 metre lap pool, children's pool and an outdoor resort pool.
